EXPERIENCE

Decoded Advertising

Brand Coordinator

Culver City, CA
Nov. 2020 – Present

- Develop briefs that translate client needs and identify possible opportunities as guided by the current strategic learning plan.
- Write thought starters about the client's work and general brand opportunities by gauging relevant cultural trends and extracting insights from research.
- Established a new internal newsletter analyzing client's brand news, competitor analysis, and industry landscape via research, Google Alerts, and social listening. The efficacy of the newsletter led to its adoption across multiple accounts.

The Walt Disney Company

Strategic Planning & Communications Undergrad Associate

Burbank, CA

Jun. 2019 – Jan. 2020

- Managed the internal communication websites through content auditing, metrics analysis, and creation of new employee engagement strategies.
- Implemented a new strategy to include and engage Disney's thousands of international employees in business objectives.
- Lead the production and development of a global internal newsletter through executive stakeholder management and cross-team coordination.

A.S. Graphic Studio

Public Relations Coordinator

La Jolla, CA

Apr. 2017–Jun. 2019

- Developed, wrote, and managed social media campaigns for the student council, campus events, concerts, and various campus brand entities.
- Ideated and constructed a ~200 sq. ft interactive art installation room as part of a celebratory gallery based on Graphic Studio's projects, history, and brand identity.
- Created a two-part campaign for the schoolwide election, to recruit candidates and increase voter turnout with social media, experiential, and print aspects.

Team One

Strategy Planning Intern

Playa Vista, CA

Jun. 2018 – Aug. 2018

- Created a client facing biweekly news roundup of relevant travel, industry, and competitor information and analysis.
- Generated a strategic plan and creative brief to reposition the client, Expedia, through research and MRI insights.
- Researched and analyzed industry responses and trends through social media listening and audience questionnaires to conceptualize a campaign for a RFP.
